Safeguarding

It has been brought to our attention that a video of our Carol Concert has been posted on facebook. Please remember at all times that it is a safeguarding issue to take photo's or videos and parents have been asked on a number of occasions not to do this unless given permission by the school. If you have any concerns please see a member of school staff.

Fundraising

We would like to thank you all for your continued support with these events.

Save the Children

We appreciate that it can be difficult financially at this time of year, and are very grateful for any donations that you have sent in with your children. Thank you.

Attendance

Congratulations to all the parents and children that have received their 100% attendance for this term, keep up the good work. Well Done!!

Trips

As you are aware the children have been on trips out of school this week to the theatre and the zoo. We would like to congratulate them all on their behaviour and good manners. They were fantastic and a credit to St John Bosco!
